1. O soul, you know the pres-ent and the past; All that you have been thro',
2. May - be some joy or sor-row round the bend Lies there to wrap your soul,
3. Oh, will you trust your fu-ture un - to Him, Who led the men of old,
4. Then when at last you're led up the last climb; And break all earth-ly ties;

Yet lies be - fore you "fu-ture" deep and vast; God on - ly knows what Or just a chance a help - ing hand to lend Some wea - ry wan - der -
To lead you too, thro' val - leys that are dim And tread each step as
And God Him - self will wel - come you sub - lime For - ev - er - more be -
