

LORD, WHEN WE BEND BEFORE THY THRONE 838

LYDIA C. M.

Joseph D. Carlyle, 1802

Thomas Phillips, 1735-1807

1. Lord, when we bend be - fore Thy throne, And our con -
2. Our bro - ken spir - its pity - ing see, True pen - i -
3. When we dis - close our wants in prayer, May we our
4. May faith each weak pe - ti - tion fill, And waft it fes - sions pour, Teach us to feel the sins we own, And tence im - part; Then let a kin - dling glance from Thee Beam wills re - sign; That not a thought may en - ter there Which to the skies, And teach our hearts 'tis good - ness still That hate what we de - plore, And hate what we de - plore.

hope up - on the heart, Beam hope up - on the heart.
is not whol - ly Thine, Which is not whol - ly Thine.
grants it or de - nies, That grants it or de - nies.